

Controlling Manager (m/f/d) – Financial Planning and Analysis for Solvd Group

The mission of Solvd Group (Solvd) is to automate the end-to-end motor claims management process by integration of the best-in-class digital and AI-supported tools available in the market. Creating a leading global claims platform as one-stop-shop for insurers should enable an easily integrated, seamless and smooth experience for clients.

Solvd is a dynamic and rapidly growing company within the Allianz SE, based in Munich, Germany, and dedicated to shape the claims management future within and outside the Allianz Group.

You are a numbers enthusiast with a passion for precision? You succeed in a dynamic, pragmatic, friendly, agile and international work environment? If so, we're looking for YOU!

Your Role & Responsibilities

As Controlling Manager you report to our Head of Finance and are responsible for all Planning & Controlling activities for Solvd and its portfolio companies. You will act as a financial specialist for our colleagues, management and relevant stakeholders.

Key responsibilities:

- Generate sales invoices for products or services provided by the company
- Prepare and analyze financial statements,
- Conduct regular financial forecasting and budgeting activities.
- Support in preparing management reporting to Top Management and to Allianz stakeholders
- Contribute to local finance-driven forecasting, collaborate with other departments on cross-functional projects, and monitor commercial and functional costs for profitability optimization.
- Contribute to special/global projects and business cases and navigate
- Document application of policies, procedures and workflow for your areas of responsibility and support in annual audit processes
- Interface to Allianz Group centers as required

>> Next page

Controlling Manager (m/f/d) – Financial Planning and Analysis for Solvd Group

Key Requirements/Skills/Experience

- 3+ years of work experience in a corporate accounting or controlling team or at an accountancy or audit firm
- A degree in business administration or a related field with a focus on accounting or controlling
- Strong knowledge of accounting principles and regulations.
- Strong communication skills to liaise independently with stakeholders internally and externally
- Solid Accounting software and Excel skills to perform data analysis
- Proven hands-on approach, pro-active in nature and happy to take ownership of issues and resolve
- Proficiency in PowerPoint
- Written and oral fluency in German and English

Sounds suitable? Contact us!

If you fit the profile, we'd love to hear more about you. Send us your application documents to:

Isabella Wagner
HR Business Partner

info@solvd.group

Solvd Group
Königinstraße 28
80802 München